

Music and Dance at Cruden Farm supports life saving research

Dame Elisabeth Murdoch invites families to visit Cruden Farm for a day of music and dance this Sunday 24 February 2008. Discovery Day at Cruden Farm will raise funds for the Murdoch Childrens Research Institute.

Parents can relax in Dame Elisabeth's magnificent garden while kids enjoy music performances and dance workshops as well as special appearances by Dorothy the Dinosaur, Dora the Explorer, Spongebob SquarePants and Patrick Starfish.

Kids' favourites including the animal farm, magicians, fairies, clowns, face painting, jumping castles will return, plus there will be live music from kids DJ David Southwick, pony rides and more. Families can bring their own picnic or enjoy the sausage sizzle and many treats on offer.

Tickets can be purchased online at www.mcri.edu.au and cost $40 for adults, with all children admitted free. All proceeds go toward innovative, world class research to help prevent and treat conditions affecting children including allergy, cancer, cerebral palsy, obesity, heart disease, genetic conditions and premature birth.

Special thanks to our major sponsors Herald Sun and Country Road, as well as Leader Community Newspapers, ABN AMRO Morgans, Marshall White, Splitrock, Sonray, Hall & Wilcox Lawyers, Bird in Hand wines, Southern Bay Brewing Company and Genesis Fitness Club.

When? Sunday 24 February 2008, 10.00am - 3.00pm
Where? Cruden Farm, Langwarrin (enter from Cranhaven Road)
Melway reference 103 G6
Tickets Adults $40, all proceeds go to Murdoch Childrens Research Institute. All children admitted free. Tickets available online until 5pm Friday 22 February 2008 at www.mcri.edu.au.
Media Contact: Kellie Furey 0415 563 811